The commercial building is a two-story three-bay by two-bay structure with a one-story, two-bay addition and a one-story two-bay mechanic's garage. The main section has a hipped roof and large picture windows on the first floor on each side of a central entrance. The two-bay addition is constructed of rusticated concrete block and has two large picture windows. The mechanic's garage is a concrete block addition. The commercial building serves as an office, small store, gas station, and restaurant. The building appears to have been constructed in the mid-20th century. The owner believes that the property was built in the early 1940s.

The commercial building is located at the southwest corner of the intersection of College Road and Rt. 65. It is located in the V of a fork at this intersection. The main facade faces north.

The main section of the property has a concrete foundation and a modern siding exterior. The hipped roof is covered in asphalt shingle. The main facade is unornamented but is marked by the large windows on the first floor and a large entranceway with side lights.
